Sealmatic Announces Promotion

Mr. Sanjeev Vange

Senior Vice President
Global Sales & Marketing

Sealmatic India Ltd (BSE listed: 543782), a prominent player in cutting-edge mechanical sealing technology and services for the global process industries, is pleased to announce the promotion of Mr Sanjeev Vange to the position of Senior Vice President – Global Sales & Marketing. This elevation reflects the company's confidence in his leadership capabilities and recognises his exceptional contribution to the growth journey, driven by deep technical expertise and a strong global business perspective.

Mr Sanjeev Vange brings with him over 36 years of rich experience in the field of mechanical seals, his professional journey has been rooted in the world of rotary equipment and fluid sealing applications, where he has developed a reputation for strong application understanding, practical problem-solving and the ability to translate complex operating challenges into reliable and sustainable sealing solutions.

Throughout his career, Mr Vange has demonstrated a rare capability to connect application engineering with market strategy. His understanding of mechanical seals and seal supply systems, combined with hands-on experience in troubleshooting, failure analysis and product customisation, has consistently enabled customers to achieve improved equipment reliability and lifecycle performance. In addition to his technical depth, Mr. Vange has played a pivotal role in shaping strategic sales and marketing initiatives. He has been instrumental in driving growth across project business, first-fit applications and high-value aftermarket opportunities, while maintaining a strong focus on profitability, long-term sustainability and customer confidence. Mr. Vange is equally respected for his leadership philosophy.

Commenting on the promotion, Mr Umar AK Balwa, Managing Director, Sealmatic India Ltd., says that; “Sanjeev’s promotion is a natural progression and a reflection of the immense value he brings to Sealmatic. His deep understanding of mechanical seals and rotary applications, combined with his strategic mindset and global exposure, has been instrumental in strengthening our market presence and business foundations. I congratulate him on this well-deserved promotion and look forward to his continued leadership as part of our Top Management Team.”

In the role as Senior Vice President – Global Sales & Marketing, Mr Vange will lead Sealmatic global sales and marketing functions, drive strategic growth initiatives and support the company's expansion across geographies. Sealmatic dream team congratulates Mr Sanjeev Vange on this significant milestone and wishes him continued success as he takes on this expanded leadership responsibility.
